From Here To There: A Father and Son Road-Trip from Melbourne to London to London

By Faine, Jon

HarperCollins Publishers, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 17.9 x 22 cm. An intelligent, humorous travel tale that is also the story of a tender father-son relationship from ABC Local Radio's legendary broadcaster Jon Faine. 'Somehow, I convinced myself it was a good idea. Somehow, I convinced myself that it was do-able. Now I shake my head. We drove through the Gobi desert in Mongolia in a snowstorm, avoided an Iranian sedan doing cartwheels on the freeway near tehran, wove around the shores of the Caspian Sea and navigated the desert in turkmenistan. We learned to say thank you in thirty languages and dispensed fluffy koalas to traumatised small children in obscure mountain pockets from Laos to Kurdistan. We kicked an Aussie Rules footy across borders and taught customs officers how to do a drop-punt from timor Leste to Uzbekistan. We ate bark and ox blood and worms and pigs ears and eel and curries so hot we nearly fell off our chairs. We bribed police in five countries, ignored parking tickets in another six and got lost pretty much everywhere. We squabbled over food and farting, snoring and sneezing. It was total folly and it was the best thing you...

This book can be well worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It is written in simple words and phrases and not confusing. It's been printed in an exceptionally simple way in fact it is merely right after I finished reading through this pdf by which basically changed me, modified the way I think.
